Other Eastern Rites

With the exception of the Five Exarchates of the Byzantine-Ruthenian Rite and the Maronite and Melkite Rites as listed in the preceding pages of The Official Catholic Directory, other Eastern Rites in communion with Rome do not have Ordinaries of their own in the United States. Consequently they are under the jurisdiction of the local Ordinary and the various parishes and institutions are incorporated in the Archdiocesan and Diocesan listings. Please consult these pages for full information regarding churches, personnel and statistics. For convenience, however, below are listed the Eastern Rite churches and the cities in which they are located.
